

Reading Log: Students will keep a notebook in which they record any words for which they did not know the meaning of and their definitions. This will include words specific to the class as well as more general terms.

Writing Assignment: The details of this will be discussed in class. It will be a 2-3 page typed assignment.

Make-up Examinations:

Make up exams will only be considered in cases of extreme hardship. The make up may be very different from the exam given in class and may be oral or written.

Disabilities:

Any student having a disability requiring special consideration by the instructor needs to contact the instructor directly to discuss any special arrangements that may need implementing.
